TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This letter is in support of DEI's proposal for starting the B. Voc. course in Commercial Arts in Faculty of Arts under DDUK.

We welcome the initiative and see great value in the proposed course. Our organisation has benefited from the services and capabilities of people with the abilities and knowledge of computer and design programs creating illustrations, and artworks. In fact these inputs are complementary to our overall design offering to our clients.

We are enthused to know that DEI through the B. Voc. course in Commercial Arts will skill and equip students to be industry ready in their knowledge and ability. We fully support this endeavour and offer to partner with your esteemed institution in curriculum development, internships and training opportunities.

We endorse the introduction of this course. We look forward to a skilled and knowledgeable resource in the students who would have had the quality education at DEI and will tomorrow form part of the valuable workforce for our country and even our organisation.

TO WHOMSOEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This letter is in support of DEI's proposal for starting the B. Voc. In Commercial Arts Faculty of Arts under DDUK.

We see great value in this proposal and believe it to be complimentary to the efforts of our organization and consistent with organizational assets and capabilities. We offer our full support for your efforts and hereby agree to determine opportunities to take advantage of the workforce trained and the facility established. Specifically, we will work with you to identify shared curriculum development, internships and exchange opportunities.

Proposed course will support job growth in this rapidly growing field of Commercial Arts. We know that our collaboration on this project will support students from all backgrounds as they seek to improve their economic potential through enhanced educational attainment.

We endorse your proposal for starting the course on Commercial Arts as it brings added potential for job creation and related economic outcomes through the enhanced learning opportunities that it will provide to our community, and the greater resource of skilled and knowledgeable workers that it will bring to our employees and employers in India.

Respected Sir,

Firstly our Sincere Greetings and Congratulations on the Thought Process and dedication of the Dayalbagh Educational Institute in developing new and innovative courses and also, keeping in mind the needs that emerging India's youth need to skill themselves with.

We the Tourism Guild of Agra are an autonomous and Apex body of like-minded Travel Trade and Hospitality Professionals who are driving the reforms that the city so badly needs and we also understand the needs of the industry and what you are setting of to achieve with this course of Bachelors in Vocational Training in Tourism and Hospitality Management is definitely the need of the Hour.

We are extremely happy to be associated with the Dayalbagh Institute in any form of support you may need in the above matter as we are the end users and there is always a dearth of educated and groomed individuals in today's Tourism Industry.

We wish the program a great success and looking forward to being associated with Dayalbagh Educational Society in this timely Initiative.

Best Wishes and God Speed!!

Regards,

To Create interest amongst the weaker section of the society towards Madhubani art & craft and improve their skills in recreating these designs with commercial viability helping large number of such communities to ensure income. The skill training aims to improve the quality of life of the Scheduled Caste Sections of the Society with the better utilization of this rural art form of Mithila (Bihar) by upgrading it into the craft oriented skills

Increase in higher technologies the traditional crafts like Madhubani are challenged to be introduced with better innovative skills, which would provide a great platform to generate income methods for the trainees.

Over the years Madhubani art has grown to the limitations from just a hand painted art forms to the wide range of hand crafted products like bags, outfits, apparels, furnishings and also gone beyond boundaries of textiles towards the interior and exterior accents of the buildings, thus providing the abundant opportunity for the trainees to learn and impart their skill in the most productive manner.
