PROLOGUE

The Motto of NSS "Not Me But You", reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for self-less service. NSS helps the students develop appreciation to other person's point of view and also show consideration to other living beings.

The philosophy of the NSS is well doctined in this motto, which underlines/on the belief that the welfare of an individual is ultimately dependent on the welfare of the society on the whole and therefore, the NSS volunteers shall strive for the well-being of the society.

NSS IN DEI

The DEI Education Policy was conceived, planned, formulated, crystallized and executed by the Supreme Teacher and Founder Director of Dayalbagh Educational Institute in the year 1975. The Government of India promulgated its National Education Policy in 1986. A comparison between the two reveal various common aspects implying the Education Policy of DEI anticipated eleven years earlier those aspects beneficial to the country which were incorporated in the National policy of Education later in 1986.

This Institute has been pioneer in implementing the scheme since its inception in UP Social service is an integral component (under Rural Development) of DEI's program of innovative and comprehensive undergraduate education, which combines academic excellence with social relevance.

Ambience of an active, disciplined, socially sensitive and co-operative community life and work ethic at Dayalbagh with its multi-faceted infrastructure of agriculture, education and industry, provide the basic thrust for social work in surrounding villages.

Starting with only two units of 100 students each and two project officers in 1970 the Institute has 1600 students on roll in NSS with 16 Program Officers and a Program Co-ordinator. With the co-ordinated effort of all the faculties, multi-pronged efforts have been made to make a more effective contribution towards rural reconstruction. Participation in NSS Camp is compulsory for all students in the first semester of their course of study.

NSS in DEI aims at is developing personality of students through community service. In order to fulfill the objective, student volunteers and program functionaries are engaged in constructive and productive programs involving students in various Awareness Drives, Shramdaan, Cleanliness Drive, Social Reforms, Communal Harmony, Creation of Community Assets, Relief Work, Blood Donation, Environmental Protection, Literacy Programme, Health Education Campaign, etc.
