

HISTORY

The Dayalbagh Educational Institute is located in Agra amidst the tranquil environs of Dayalbagh, a self-contained colony renowned for its serene environment and secular establishment, in which its inhabitants lead an active, disciplined and co-operative community life dedicated to service, conforming to the high spiritual ideals of their faith. On the outskirts of the historic city of Agra, the campus is situated in garden settings, away from the din and noise an excellent ambience and academic setting which are in harmony with nature. This, along with a simple, disciplined and principled life, undoubtedly contributes to the strength of the social, moral and spiritual fibre of the Institutes educational system. The Government of India conferred the status of a Deemed University on the Dayalbagh Educational Institute on 16th May, 1981 with the mission objective of evolving a complete man providing opportunities to develop physical, mental and spiritual faculties under its unique innovative and comprehensive education policy with accent on quality. The Advisory Committee on Education (ACE), Dayalbagh Educational Institution (DEIs), is an informal think tank for promoting values and qualities across the board in educational activities of DEI.
