

76th Republic Day Celebrated with Patriotic Fervour at Dayalbagh Educational Institute (Deemed to be University), Dayalbagh, Agra

26th January, 2025: Dayalbagh Educational Institute (DEI) celebrated the 76th Republic Day with great enthusiasm and patriotic spirit. The event, held on the DEI main campus, was a vibrant display of discipline, unity, and national pride. Dr. Sanjeev Sharma, Joint Secretary, Lok Sabha Secretariat, New Delhi, graced the occasion as the Chief Guest. The celebrations commenced with the unfurling of the national flag, followed by a meticulously coordinated Guard of Honour and March past by NCC contingent and students of all DEI faculties, colleges, and schools. The precision and discipline displayed by the students were a testament to the rigorous preparations and values of discipline instilled by the institute. Patriotic songs filled the air, sung by various student groups, adding to the patriotic ambiance.

Dr. Sharma, in his address, shared a nostalgic journey back to his own student days at DEI. He emphasized the profound impact the institute had on his life and professional career, recalling the values and discipline he learned during his time as an undergraduate student. He stressed that his achievements were rooted in the strong foundation laid by DEI, acknowledging the institute's role in shaping him into the person he is today. He commended DEI for fostering a holistic educational ecosystem that nurtures well-rounded individuals and instils into them the virtues of responsible citizenship. He interacted extensively with the present students of DEI with friendly enthusiasm and compassion and urged them all to emulate these values and contribute to building a brighter future for India through hard work, dedication, and the discipline they are learning at DEI.

Prof. C. Patvardhan, Director, DEI, echoed the Chief Guest's sentiments, emphasizing how the DEI program moulds students into complete individuals, dedicated to national duty with patriotic fervour. He highlighted the institute's commitment to nurturing not just academically proficient individuals, but also responsible and patriotic citizens. He congratulated everyone on the occasion and wished the students success in all their future endeavours.

The program also included the presentation of prizes to winners of the march past parade. Special recognition was given to the "Superman Contingent" of young children from the DEI Nursery and Play Centre and various Dayalbagh schools for their outstanding performances. The event was broadcast to DEI study centers across India and abroad through the e-cascade network, reaching thousands of attendees. The celebrations concluded with the Institute's song, leaving a lasting impression of patriotism and pride in the hearts of all who attended. Shri Gur Sarup Sood, President, DEI and Radhasoami Satsang Sabha, Prof. Anand Mohan, Registrar, Smt. Sneha Bijlani, Treasurer, Prof. Sangeeta Kumar, Programme Coordinator, Faculty Heads, Deans, and Principals were among the dignitaries gracing the occasion.

*****