

Political Science

S.No.	Course Number & Title	Course Outcome
1	PSH 101 (Principles of Political Science)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand feature and concepts of Political Science. • understand concept of nation, state and civil society. • understand the element and the factor of state and nation. • know about the meaning of sovereignty types and characteristics. • understand the origin of the concept such as law, power, authority, legitimacy. • understand the forms of government and their working pattern.
2	PSH 102(Indian Government & Politics)	Students will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the causes and impact of British colonial rule. • understand the various phases of national and social movement of India. • understand various Government of Indian Acts their provisions and reforms. • understand political factor which lead to the freedom struggle. • understand Philosophy of Indian Constitution, Fundamental Rights, duties and directive principles of state policy. • identify how electoral rules and procedure in India effect election outcome.
	PSM 101 (Principle of Political Science)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand feature and concepts of Political Science. • understand concept of nation, state and civil society. • understand the element and the factor of state and nation. • know about the meaning of sovereignty types and characteristics. • understand the origin of the concept such as law, power, authority, legitimacy. • understand the forms of government and their working pattern.
3	PSM 102(Comparative Politics)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand significance and nature of comparative politics. • study various perspectives on approaches. • became familiar with the primary theories and concepts that form the building blocks of the subfield, especially as they apply to different states in the world.
4	PSM 201 (Constitution of UK & USA)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the structure and operation of political system

		in U.K. & U.S.A. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • compare between U.K. , U.S.A.& India’s political system. • identify the unique features of U.K. & U.S.A political system . • understand the structure of legislature, executive and judiciary.
	PSM 202 (Constitution of Switzerland, France & Canada)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the structure and operation of political system in Switzerland, France and Canada. • compare among Switzerland, France, Canada and India’s political system. • identify the unique features of Switzerland, France and Canada political system . • understand the structure of legislature, executive and judiciary.
5	PSM 301 (Indian National Movement: 1885-1947)	Students will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the struggle of Indian people against colonialism and also teaches struggle for different theoretical perspective in different dimensions. • understands Indian social movements, causes and rise of communalism in India, class struggle , caste and gender questions.
6	PSM 302 (Political Theory)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the foundation of major political theories. • understand the meaning of political theory by which the students can develop their critical arguments on various political theory. • develop sound knowledge of political theory by which they compare among various political theory.
7	PSM 303 (Political Ideas)
8	PSM 401(Indian Government & Politics)	Students will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the causes and impact of British colonial rule. • understand the various phases of national and social movement of India. • understand various Government of Indian Acts their provisions and reforms. • understand political factor which lead to the freedom struggle. • understand Philosophy of Indian Constitution, Fundamental Rights, duties and directive principles of state policy. • identify how electoral rules and procedure in India effect election outcome.
9	PSM 402 (Comparative Government & Politics)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the basic concepts and approaches to the study

		of comparative politics. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • focus on examine theoretical aspects and practical perspectives of comparative analysis in developed and developing countries. • trained in the application of comparative methods to the study of politics and this course is comparative in both what we study and how we study.
10	PSM 403 (Foreign Policy of India)
11	PSM 501 (Indian Political Thought)	Students understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the introductory elements of Indian Political Thought. • the study on individual thinker whose ideas are framed as specific themes also encouraging the specific knowledge of individual thinkers and text. • based on individual thinker. This course introduced a wide span of thinkers and theme that defines the modernity of Indian Political Thought. • the contribution of Indian women in Indian social and national movement.
12	PSM 502 (Public Administration)	Students understands: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the introduction of Public Administration. • emphasis on classical, contemporary administrative and management theory. • a comprehensive understanding on contemporary administrative development. • all the concepts and theories of Public Administration. • and became aware on the expanding frontiers of new public administration. • what is most essential in public administration today i.e. accountability and control.
13	PSM 503 (Political Economy of India)	Students will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • demonstrate to generalized understanding of the dynamic relationship between politics and economics globally. • to recognize the direct and indirect connections between IPE processes and their daily lives what it means to live in globalized world.
14	PSM 504 (Women, State And Society)
15	PSM 601 (Western Political Thought)	Students understands: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the knowledge of key thinker and concepts. • the relationship between the religion and politics in early modern western political thought. • to acquire knowledge about modern political thinker and their views on state craft. • compare with the social and political thought of Hobbes, Lock & Rousseou and their views regarding state government and general will. • Marxist philosophy to making a better society.
16	PSM 602 (International Politics)

17	PSM 603(Contemporary Political Theory)	Students will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • demonstrate knowledge of major political ideas and debates. • demonstrate knowledge of some of the major political thinkers in western political thought past and present. • develop written arguments using political ideas. • acquire the capacity to intervene in tutorial debates based on sound knowledge of the set text.
18	PSM 604(Ethics & Politics)	Students understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the basics of ethics. • the philosophical ideas of ethics. • theoretical perspectives on the responsibilities in public life. • common ethical problems that arise in contemporary politics. • how to deal and solve these ethical issues in politics. • number of contemporary political issues. • and became able to effectively write and develop arguments. • and will be able to better comprehend others views and formulate defend their own position.
19	PSM 701(Indian Government & Politics)	Students will be able to : <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • identify the causes and impact of British colonial rule. • understand the various phases of national and social movement of India. • understand various Government of Indian Acts their provisions and reforms. • understand political factor which lead to the freedom struggle. • understand Philosophy of Indian Constitution, Fundamental Rights, duties and directive principles of state policy. • identify how electoral rules and procedure in India effect election outcome.
20	PSM 702(Socio Political Issues of Indian Women)
21	PSM 703(Globalization & International Relations)
22	PSM 704(Indian Political Thought)	Students will be able to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • understand the introductory elements of Indian Political Thought. • identify the basic structure of social and political system of ancient India. • understand the study of individual thinker whose ideas are framed as specific themes also encouraging the specific knowledge of individual thinkers and text. • became understand the ideas of individual thinker. This course introduced a wide span of thinkers and theme that defines the modernity of Indian Political Thought.

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the contribution of Indian women in Indian social and national movement.
	PSM 801(Philosophy and Methodology of Social Science)
	PSM 802 (Western Political Thought)	Students understands: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the knowledge of key thinker and concepts. the relationship between the religion and politics in early modern western political thought. to acquire knowledge about modern political thinker and their views on state craft. compare with the social and political thought of Hobbes, Lock & Rousseau and their views regarding state government and general will. Marxist philosophy to making a better society. with an overview of western political thinker from Plato to Marx.
	PSM 803 (Political Sociology)
23	PSM 804 (Public Policy)	Students understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the introduction of Public Administration. emphasis on classical, contemporary administrative and management theory. a comprehensive understanding on contemporary administrative development. all the concepts and theories of Public Administration. and became aware on the expanding frontiers of new public administration. what is most essential in public administration today i.e. accountability and control. the public policy process in India. application of public policy in India.
24	PSM 806(International Law)	Students understand: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> theories and concepts of new legal situations. the important doctrines of international law. both the legal and political aspects of international decisions and events. to think more analytically on international politics. the basic
	PSM 902(Contemporary Political Theory)
	PSM 903 (Foreign Policy of India)
25	PSM 954 (Advance Research Methodology and Analysis)
	PSM 955 (Modern Political Ideas)

